"Draft Suit Planned"

Dear Friends,

SDS is organizing now around a mass suit to be filed shortly in the Federal courts. The suit demands that those who have strong objection to this particular war in Vietnam be exempted from the draft. It is being filed by the Law Center in New York. Our goal is to have 30,000 sign as plaintiffs, and already work is going on to collect the names.

We feel that the suit has several advantages. If we are able to get a significant number of signers, it will have the effect of a very strong demand to end the war. If we lose the case, as almost certainly we will, many of the signers will refuse and perhaps demonstrations can be constructed around it to further show the de-legitimacy of the government's draft and war policy.

The suit also has the advantage that many will sign it who would not take the stronger stand of refusal—so it is a more broad-reaching tool. Signing the suit should in no way change or prejudice the signer's draft status. It may, however, provide him with a delay. If his induction comes up during the summer, a lawyer may very well (the chances are good) get him a delay of induction on the basis that the mass suit has not been ruled on in the federal courts. The possibility of delay is a further inducement to get men to sign as plaintiffs in the case.

We are also trying to integrate signers into summer projects on the draft and on racism in the white community. If possible, signers should be encouraged to contact the SDS office here and we will attempt to point them to an ongoing summer project.

We will be happy to send a draft of the proposed brief and further information to any individual or organization interested in using this material. We are hoping for your cooperation and, especially, would ask that you keep us informed as to the kind of work you do or plan to do on the suit. Legal questions should probably be addressed to the Law Center for Constitutional Rights, 115 Market St., Newark, New Jersey 07102.

The "New York Daily News" a New York City
(NYC) daily newspaper, January 10th, 1966, page contained an article entitled "Word from the Left". The article identified Thomas David 23, a founder of the SDS, as one of three Americans who carried a State Department travel pass to spend ten days in North Vietnam and who arrived at Hanoi Airport on the 10th of January 1966.

On the Chicago Disturbances

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SAS FBI) at 2:00 p.m. on September 25, 1968, observed a group of 15 hippie type individuals holding a disorganized protest in front of the FBI building located at 201 East 60th St.

Anita Hoffman, the spokesman for the group, stated that they were present to protest the FBI sending agents to their homes everyday for the past two weeks and harassing them.
He stated that he had been subpoenaed along with Jerry Rubin, David Dellinger, Rennie Davis and Thomas Hayden by the HUAC.
He stated that they also came to put "something" on the FBI door. He stated that "his agent, Mr. Scholl", asked him to come up to the FBI office to see him. He also stated that Tokyo Rose would put a leaflet on the FBI door.

Anita Hoffman, who identified herself as Tokyo Rose, was then observed attempting to post a leaflet on the FBI door which read as follows:

"We demand an end to the current wave of FBI harassment. If this does not cease Tokyo Rose will stage weekly Love-ins in this building.

"The Yippies"

"P.S. 1/10 of a gram of LSD = 50 years in prison."

A NYC policeman prevented Anita Hoffman from posting the leaflet on the FBI door and made the leaflet available to the FBI.

Ramona Ripston then appeared at the FBI building and she described herself as a co-director of the National Lawyers Guild and the National Lawyers Guild defense committee. She stated that she had been subpoenaed by the HUAC to appear before the committee. She stated that she had been subpoenaed by the HUAC and that she had been subpoenaed by the FBI on 9/10/68. She stated that she had been subpoenaed by the FBI on 9/10/68.

As the people of the world are becoming more and more aware of the truth about the expose of 1961, it is a matter of time before the hunter will be found.

Abbie Hoffman also announced that while he and the others appear before the HUAC hearings in Washington, D.C. beginning October 14, 1968, thirty groups including the SDS will demonstrate in Washington, D.C. He also announced there would be a rally Sunday, September 29, 1968, in Washington, D.C. and that another rally would be held on Tuesday night, October 1, 1968 at Georgetown University.

The press conference ended at 2:15 p.m.; however, various individuals continued interviews at the instance of the press. During one of these interviews, Abbie Hoffman made disparaging remarks concerning the Director of the FBI, J. Edgar Hoover.

By 2:40 p.m., all of the individuals attending the press conference had dispersed.

Re means of a search of records conducted by SA of the FBI, with an informant from the New York City Office of the Mayor, on September 26, 1965. It was determined that Remmie Earl and David DeMunnick were held there in confinement at the time of the assassination of John F. Kennedy on 27, 1965.
